About School

Uppingham School is an independent co-educational day and boarding school for pupils aged 13–18, located in Uppingham, Rutland, in the East Midlands of England. The School is situated in the historic market town of Uppingham and provides a welcoming and close-knit environment for pupils from the UK and overseas. It is conveniently located within travelling distance of major cities including Leicester, Peterborough, Nottingham and Birmingham. The nearest major airport is East Midlands Airport (EMA), approximately 60–66 kilometres from the School, with a driving time of around 50–55 minutes. The School offers a distinctive boarding experience alongside a strong academic education, with extensive opportunities in sports, music, drama, arts and a wide range of extracurricular activities. Uppingham School has a long and distinguished history and is well known for its strong sense of community and broad approach to education.

Uppingham School has a strong academic focus and provides pupils with a broad and challenging education designed to prepare them for university and life beyond school. Pupils regularly progress to leading universities in the UK and overseas, including institutions such as the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, as well as other highly regarded universities across a wide range of subjects. Students are encouraged to develop their individual interests, strengths and talents through a combination of academic study, sport, music, drama, the arts and other activities beyond the classroom. The School places importance not only on academic achievement but also on developing pupils' independence, confidence and wider skills.

The School aims to provide a supportive and inclusive community where pupils can develop academically, personally and socially. Boarding is an important part of life at Uppingham, with pupils typically living within one of the School's boarding houses and taking part in a strong house community.

Admission to Uppingham School is selective, with the main entry point at 13+ and further entry at 16+. The admissions process may include registration, entrance assessments and interviews. If you have any questions about the entrance assessment, application process or requirements, feel free to contact Scholar Gateway for further guidance.
